

David Flaughter and Davina Semo

February 7 – March 8, 2015
Opening Saturday, February 7, 2015, 7-10pm

For immediate release:

U.S. Blues is pleased to present a two-person exhibition featuring new works by David Flaughter and Davina Semo.

David Flaughter attended the Skowhegan School of Painting & Sculpture in 2010 and received his MFA from New York University in 2013. Recent exhibitions include Seau Banco Carbon at Tomorrow Gallery & Bed Stuy Love Affair, New York, From whose ground heaven and hell compare at Croy Nielsen, Berlin, and Sweet Potato at Shoot The Lobster, Luxembourg. David lives and works in New York.

Davina Semo has had recent solo exhibitions at Rawson Projects, New York, Ribordy Contemporary, Geneva, Marlborough Chelsea, New York, and White Flag Library, St. Louis. Her work has been included in numerous group exhibitions both in the United States and abroad such Cemeterium at Emerson Dorsh Gallery, Miami, curated by Regina Rex, and Another, Once Again, Many Times More at Martos Gallery, New York. She lives and works in New York.